NO FIGHT

Baker's Nomination to Be Confirmed Without Opposition.

Fairbanks Has No Ground for Open Hostility in the Senate Though Beveridge Has Won a Great Victory over Him—Effect of Appointment on Indiana Politics.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 12.—The Indiana republican representatives are much disturbed over the appointment of Judge Francis E. Baker of that state as United States circuit court judge of the seventh judicial district, which includes the states of Indiana, Illinois, and Wisconsin. This appointment stands as a complete victory for Senator Beveridge, and the friends of Senator Fairbanks fear that it means that Beveridge is to hold the same close and confidential relations to President Roosevelt that Fairbanks held to President McKinley. Beveridge bears his honors modestly and does not say that the appointment of Baker was due to his (Beveridge's) influence at the white house.

Senator Beveridge indorsed Baker soon after the death of Judge Woods and he stood by him. Senator Fairbanks indorsed no one, but would not agree to Baker's appointment. He encouraged the republican representatives to propose candidates, any one of whom he said would be satisfactory to him.

This plan of proposing half a dozen candidates to defeat one did not appeal to the president. He had Attorney General Knox examine the papers and the records of the candidates, and that official reported in favor of Judge Baker. The situation was peculiar. One senator indorsed Judge Baker, the other presented no candidate, but each of the republican representatives had a candidate. The opposition could not get together and Judge Baker had the strongest indorsement. He was therefore appointed.

The Indiana men want Senator Fairbanks to object to the confirmation, and last night he talked to several senators to learn what help he could obtain. To-day there is little indication of delay in confirmation. Senator Fairbanks realizes that he has no good cause for opposing the confirmation of Baker because he refused to present a candidate of his own.

The political effect in Indiana is feared by the senior senator. It will place Beveridge in front as the most influential Indiana man at the white house, though the president had no intention of creating such an impression. Some of Fairbanks' friends think that he should make a fight against confirmation to restore his prestige as the Indiana leader in Washington, and show that he still has great influence in the senate. The older republican senators have advised against this plan, as it would be simply another mistake.

The senate cannot afford to encourage dog-in-the-manger tactics. If Fairbanks had proposed a candidate and been ignored, he would have grounds for complaint. But as the situation stands republican senators can see no cause for taking offense, whatever humiliation the victory of Beveridge may be to him.

RIGHT UP TO DATE.

(Benson's Plaster is Pain's Master.)

These are days of records and of the best of records. Benson's Plaster, for quickness of action and thoroughness of cure, has no records to beat except its own. Benson's Plaster, always the best, always the leader, is to-day better than ever. It sticks to the skin but never sticks in its tracks. The people not only want to be cured but cured quickly—and Benson's Plaster does it. Coughs, colds, lumbago, asthma, bronchitis, liver and kidney complaints, and other ills approachable by an external remedy, yield to Benson's Plaster as ice does to heat. Neither Belladonna, Stramonium, or Opium plasters are to be compared with Benson's. People who have once tested the merits of Benson's Plaster have no use for any other external remedy. More than 5,000 physicians and druggists (and a countless number of many non-professional persons) have called Benson's Plaster one of the few (1) home remedies that can be trusted. Fifty-five highest awards have been made to it in competition with the best known plasters of Europe and America. Better proof of its merits is inconceivable. Be sure to get the genuine. For sale by all druggists, or we will prepay postage on any number ordered in the United States, on receipt of 25c. each. Seebury & Johnson, Mfg. Chemists, N.Y.

BAKER'S SEAT

Governor's Office Besieged by Applicants for Judicial Appointment and Their Friends.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 12.—A delegation of Hammond, Crown Point and Valparaiso citizens, supporting the candidacy of Judge Gillett, of Hammond, for the place on the Indiana supreme bench to be vacated by Judge Francis Baker when he takes his new office as United States circuit judge, were received by Governor Durbin yesterday afternoon. The governor heard the members of the delegation for nearly an hour, but refused to commit himself or to indicate in any way who will be Judge Baker's successor.

The names of Hiram S. Biggs, of Warsaw, circuit court judge, and John W. Van Fleet, of Elkhart, ex-circuit judge, were presented to the governor yesterday by telegram for Judge Baker's place on the supreme bench. W. D. Frazer, of Warsaw, National bank examiner, was here last evening, probably in the interest of Judge Biggs. In support of the candidacy of Judge Shively, of Wabash, a number of citizens from that place and adjoining counties called on the governor yesterday.

Lieutenant-Governor Gilbert, of Angola, who was at the state house yesterday, stated that the Twelfth district favors the appointment of Judge Roby of the appellate bench to succeed Judge Baker.

Several other candidates are being more or less gently mentioned and it is expected that nearly every republican lawyer of any prominence in northern Indiana will be at least suggested. Governor Durbin will select a good republican lawyer of experience on the bench living in the northern judicial district, or if he promotes a judge from the appellate court the resulting vacancy will be filled from the class described.
